ALERT: Negative Reprices Becoming More Likely

It looks like traders are throwing in the towel (or close to it) on bond trading for the week--perhaps with an eye on the 3-day weekend. Whatever the reason, we're now at the worst levels of the day in both MBS and Treasuries. Negative reprices are now becoming "likely" for jumpier lenders and "possible" for everyone else.

Responsive service, experienced expertise

I've dedicated my 22 year mortgage career to client education, superior service, and honest answers. The lending landscape has changed dramatically the past few years, and continues to do so. My job is to ensure client partners' loans close quickly, without surprises, and I take that responsibility very seriously. Referrals are a responsibility I appreciate; they're a measure of trust, and that trust must be earned every day, on every referral.
