New Home Sales Nearly Match Post-Crisis High

New home sales jumped higher in March, posting their third consecutive gain. Sales of newly constructed single-family homes were at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 621,000 units, an increase of 5.8 percent from February's downwardly revised annual rate of 587,000 units.

The U.S. Census Bureau and the Department of Housing and Urban Development said this puts sales up by 15.6 percent compared to the March 2016 estimate of 537,000 units.

Median home prices had dipped in January when compared to a year earlier, however in February the median of $315,100 was up by about $4,000 from the previous year.

About Casey Sullivan

Casey is a dedicated and dependable mortgage loan officer. His clients count on him to be their skilled, experienced, and focused consultant, listening to their needs.

He skillfully assists his clients with both refinancing and home purchases in California and more specifically the San Francisco Bay Area.

His vision is to build lifetime relationships with each client as their mortgage consultant...for life! He stays connected with each client well after closing which includes loan reviews and dependable market updates.

Casey believes that everyone deserves to completely understand their mortgage financing options and that one size does not fit all when it comes to mortgages. Nor does it apply when it comes to mortgage lenders. All lenders are not made the same and they are not all equal.
